2022 Maurice R. Hilleman Essay Contest: Official Rules

VOID WHERE PROHIBITED. NO PURCHASE OR PAYMENT OF ANY KIND IS NECESSARY TO ENTER OR WIN THIS CONTEST. OPEN ONLY TO STUDENTS LIVING IN THE 50 UNITED STATES, THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, U.S. TERRITORIES, OR CANADA WHO ARE ENROLLED IN GRADES 6-12 FOR THE 2021-2022 SCHOOL YEAR.

General Rules

From March 31, 2022 through June 10, 2022 (the “Contest Period”), the Vaccine Education Center at The Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia (“CHOP”) will conduct an essay contest open only to residents of the United States, the District of Columbia, U.S. Territories (together the “United States”) and Canada on the essay topic Maurice Hilleman was a determined scientist. Describe what this means and provide an example of determination in science. (The “Contest”). The Contest will be administered through the Vaccine Education Center’s classroom program, the Vaccine Makers Project, and will be co-sponsored by, and administered in Canada by the Canadian Public Health Association on behalf of Immunize Canada (the “Co-Sponsor”) with assistance from Kids Boost Immunity and Students for Herd Immunity (together, the “Assistant Entities”).

To enter, eligible students (see “Eligibility” section for requirements) must submit an essay entry (“Essay”) that follows the Submission Guidelines described in these Official Rules. All students entering the Contest and the parents/legal guardians of such students (collectively referred to as “Entrants” throughout, with “Entrant” referring to either the student and/or the parent/legal guardian as may be appropriate) agree to accept and be legally bound by all terms of these Official Rules and to accept and be bound by the decisions of CHOP, whose decisions are final with respect to all matters of the Contest.

Only one entry per student is permitted. Entries that are incomplete, are submitted late, or otherwise do not comply with these Official Rules will not be accepted or considered. The Essay submitted must be original and have been written solely by the student Entrant without parent/legal guardian assistance; the Essay must not previously have been published or won any award; the Essay must not contain any material that violates or infringes upon the rights of any third party, including without limitation any copyright, trademark or rights of privacy or publicity, or that is defamatory, unlawful or in violation of or contrary to any applicable law or regulation; and the Essay must not contain any material that CHOP, in its sole discretion, deems inappropriate for public viewing.

By entering the Contest, the Entrant agrees that CHOP will own and administer 100% of the copyright in the Essay submitted, with the perpetual right to use such Essay and that said Essay is solely the work of the student Entrant for whom they are submitting an entry (and not the work of a parent/legal guardian or other third party). Canadian Entrants agree to execute any additional documents required to confirm the assignment of copyright in the Essay. Further, by entering, Canadian Entrants waive any and all moral rights they may have in the Essay in favor of CHOP and the Co-Sponsor and the Assistant Entities. CHOP may edit for grammar, modify for style only, and distribute the submitted entries with no additional notification or permission of the Entrant. CHOP may allow Co-Sponsor and the Assistant Entities to use excerpts from entries.

Eligibility

The Contest is open to all United States and Canadian students who are in grades 6-12 (grades 6-11 in Quebec) during the 2021-2022 school year. Students must reside in and attend school in the United States or Canada. Students must be enrolled in a public, private, cyber, religious or charter school, or attend a home school program.

CHOP, Co-Sponsor and Assistant Entities are not responsible for entries that are lost in transit. U.S. submissions must be sent either via U.S. mail with proper postage affixed, or by FedEx or UPS with all delivery charges prepaid. Canadian submissions must be sent using Canada Post with proper postage affixed or by FedEx or UPS with all delivery charges prepaid.

For all submissions

All entry materials become the property of CHOP and will not be verified or returned. By participating in this Contest, Entrants agree to be legally bound by the Official Rules and the decisions of CHOP, which are final and binding in all respects.

By entering the Contest, each Entrant agrees that information submitted via the Website Contest Page or via mail therewith may be used as set forth herein and may also be used in connection with the administration of the Contest.

Judging

Judging will occur separately for the United States and Canada. After the submission deadline, a panel of three judges from each of the United States and Canada will review all eligible entries from that country and select the Contest prizewinners from that country subject to final review and approval by CHOP. All judges will evaluate entries using the same criteria and rubric. Entries that meet the Submission Guidelines will be evaluated based upon the following criteria, which shall be weighted equally: originality/uniqueness of thought; scope and relevance to essay prompt; accuracy; organization; and grammar/language. Essay evaluation will also consider the age level of the submitting student. In the event of a tie, Dr. Offit shall review the Essays that are tied and choose the Essay that, in his opinion, best meets all five judging criteria.

CHOP reserves the right in its sole discretion to disqualify any individual it finds or believes to be tampering with the entry process or the administration of the Contest, acting in violation of the Contest rules, or plagiarizing content in any form. CHOP will select the three judge panel for United States judging and the Co-Sponsor shall select the three judge panel for Canada judging. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the final selection of all judges is within the sole and absolute discretion of CHOP. Submissions will be judged on an anonymous basis. Judges will not know the identity of Entrants until winners are selected. The Judges will not provide any evaluation of or commentary on any Essay submitted in connection with the Contest.

Awards

Three winners will be selected from each of the United States and Canada: the top high school entry (grades 9 to 12 *grades 9-11 for Quebec), the top middle school entry (grades 6-8) and the next highest entry (from either middle school or high school). Winners will be notified by email by August 26, 2022 and announced on the Website Contest Page (<https://hillemanfilm.com/contest>) on or before October 1, 2022.

Each winner will receive the following prizes:

- US$1,000 cash prize (for Canadian contest winners, the cash prize will be paid by cheque in CAD at the Bank of Canada exchange rate in effect June 10, 2022.)
- Winner certificate and VEC prize bag containing items such as notebooks and pens selected by CHOP in its sole discretion and a pamphlet on vaccines.
- Recognition at a Virtual Award Event on Friday, September 23, 2022

The Virtual Award Event will be hosted by Dr. Paul Offit – VEC director, vaccine inventor, and Hilleman biographer – and will include special guests and student winners reading their Essays. Student winners must be able to participate in the Virtual Award Event.

CHOP reserves the right to substitute prizes if a particular item is unavailable. No substitution, cash redemption (except in the case of the cash prize paid by cheque) or transfer of the right to receive any prize is permitted.

All taxes, expenses or costs associated with the acceptance or use of the prizes are the responsibility of the winner. All federal, state, provincial/territorial and local taxes on the value of a prize, if applicable, are the responsibility of the winner. An IRS form 1099 will be issued to United States winners as required by law.

Potential winners, along with their parent or guardian, will be notified via email by August 26, 2022. Each potential winner is subject to verification of eligibility by CHOP. If a potential winner cannot be reached or does not respond within 5 business days of the initial notification attempt, or if any attempted notification is returned as undeliverable, or if a potential winner is deemed ineligible by CHOP, or if a potential winner does not otherwise comply with these Official Rules and/or cannot attend the Virtual Award Event for any reason, then the potential winner may be disqualified and an alternate winner may, at CHOP's discretion, be selected from among the remaining eligible Essays from that country as specified in these Official Rules (in which case the foregoing provisions will apply to such newly-selected Entrant).

By accepting a prize, winners release the Released Parties (as defined below) from any and all liability, loss or damage incurred with respect to the awarding, receipt, possession and/or use or misuse of the prize or any portion thereof, and acknowledge that the Released Parties have neither made nor are in any manner responsible or liable for any warranty, representation or guarantee, express or implied in fact or in law, including but not limited to its quality, mechanical condition or fitness for a particular purpose.

Teachers

Teachers named in winning entries will receive a signed copy of Pandora's Lab: Seven Stories of Science Gone Wrong, written by Paul A. Offit, MD. CHOP reserves the right to substitute teacher prize if a particular item is unavailable. No substitution, cash redemption or transfer of the right to receive any prize is permitted. If any attempted notification is returned as undeliverable or the teacher does not respond after 2 contact attempts, if the book shipment is returned as undeliverable, or if the teacher or teacher's winning student is deemed ineligible by CHOP, the teacher will no longer be eligible to receive the book at CHOP's discretion.

Release of Privacy Rights

Upon submission of an entry, the submission becomes the property of CHOP. By entering the Contest, Entrants, their parents/legal guardians and named teachers grant CHOP the right, unless prohibited by law, to use their names, cities and states/providences and countries of residence, pictures, and likenesses without compensation, for the express purpose of advertising, publicity, or educational programming of CHOP and the Contest in any and all media, now or after. In addition, any and all information collected through the Website Contest Page (as a CHOP-sanctioned and affiliated website) is subject to the Privacy Policy of The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia Web site. Ultimately, the administration of the Contest, including, without limitation, determining the eligibility of a student or Essay, selecting of a judge, evaluating any submitted Essay, and awarding of the prizes, is within the sole and absolute discretion of CHOP. No student or teacher, or person or organization related thereto, has a right to appeal, contest, dispute, or otherwise challenge any aspect of the administration of the Contest, and any decision of CHOP is final in all respects.

No responsibility is assumed for incorrect or inaccurate Essay information whether caused by any of the equipment or programming associated with or utilized by this Contest or by any human error which may occur in the processing of Essays into this Contest. By entering the Contest, Entrant assigns and transfers to CHOP all right, title, and interest in and to the copyright in the Essay and all renewals and extensions of the copyright that may be obtained under the laws now or hereafter in effect under the laws of the United States and Canada or any other country or countries.
