General Rules

From April 10, 2019 through June 7, 2019 (the “Contest Period”), the Vaccine Education Center at The Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia (“CHOP”) will conduct an essay contest open only to residents of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the U.S. Territories on the essay topic How would the world be different if Dr. Maurice Hilleman had not lived the life he did? (the “Contest”). The Contest will be administered through the Vaccine Education Center’s classroom program, the Vaccine Makers Project.

To enter, eligible students (see “Eligibility” section for requirements) must submit an essay entry (“Essay”) that follows the outlined Contest Submission Guidelines. All entrants (“Entrants”) agree to accept and be legally bound by all terms of these Official Rules and to accept and be bound by the decisions of CHOP, whose decisions are final with respect to all matters of the Contest.

Only one entry per student is permitted. Entries that are incomplete, are submitted late, or otherwise do not comply with these Official Rules will not be accepted or considered. The Essay submitted must be original and have been written solely by the Entrant; the Essay must not previously have been published or won any award; the Essay must not contain any material that violates or infringes upon the rights of any third party, including without limitation any copyright, trademark or rights of privacy or publicity, or that is defamatory, unlawful or in violation of or contrary to any applicable law or regulation; and the Essay must not contain any material that CHOP, in its sole discretion, deems inappropriate for public viewing.

By entering the Contest, Entrants agree that CHOP will own and administer 100% of the copyright in all entries submitted, with the perpetual right to use such entries and that said entries are solely the work of the Entrant for whom they are submitting an entry. CHOP may edit for grammar, modify for style only, and distribute the submitted entries with no additional notification or permission of the Entrant.

Judging

After the submission deadline, the judges selected by CHOP will review and select finalists from all the eligible entries received. The judges will then select the Contest prizewinners. Entries will be evaluated based upon the following criteria: adherence to the Submission Guidelines, grammar and language, originality, and organization. Essay evaluation will also consider the age level of the submitting student. Winners will be announced on the Website Contest Page, (<https://hillemanfilm.com/contest>), on or before Sept 19, 2019.

CHOP reserves the right in their sole administration of the Contest to disqualify any individual they find or believe to be tampering with the entry process or the administration of the Contest, acting in violation of the Contest rules, or plagiarizing content in any form.

The selection of the judges is within the sole and absolute discretion of CHOP. Submissions will be judged on an anonymous basis. Judges will not know the identity of Entrants until winners are selected. The Judges will not provide any evaluation of or commentary on any Essay submitted in connection with the Contest.
